Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Nickels left Brunswick for Kansas city the latter part of last week.

This popular couple will make their home in the city where Jim has a good paying position.

We will have another electrician in charge of the lighting system here and it is to be hoped that one approximating Jim in efficiency, courtesy and promptness will be put on the job.

We cannot hope to get a better all round man than Jim.

We still have a few Birdsell Wagons at same price but expect an advance in a few days.

Paris, France, July 21, 1918.
Mrs. Edgar H. Evans,
Marceline, Mo.

My Dear Bill:—

Have just finished a good restaurant dinner of steak, French fried, coffee and oranges, and now have a piece of chocolate and plenty of tobacco, a good desk and chair, so will try to tell you all about it.

First, as you will note, I am in Paris, and of all the places in France where I might have been stationed, Paris is the best. So far as I know now I will be here permanently. My quarters are far better than any I have had since I have been in the army, and the office is very nice.

My work is, or will be, when we are completely organized very pleasant, and the experience will I hope be of benefit to me. In fact it all seems too good to be true. I wish I could only make you see just how well fixed I am, but just believe from what little I do write, that I could not ask for more and that it is far above my expectations. I am associated in my work with some of the finest officers I have ever come in contact with.

My "Bunkie" is a fine fellow, who came across with me and has had three years of French in college so he is a great help as well as a good companion for me. He has gone this afternoon to look up some friends in the city.

Now just a few words about my movements before arriving here. Most of it has been movements as have been traveling almost continually since I left Camp Meigs. I have mentioned our trip through England. Well! it was much more pleasant and comfortable than our travels in France. However it is wonderful how France is taking care of the transportation of so many armies. France is not as pretty as I had thought it to be. They seem to have wonderful wagon roads. I can't say as much for the railroads, however to say the least, the trains run fast while

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

"Burrow" to a light cart, I suppose he is the driving horse of the family perhaps; any way you sometimes see four or five persons in the cart. This is only possible on such roads as they have in France, as in Missouri for instance the little mule could not draw the cart alone.

The above description applies to the rural districts and not Paris for in Paris it is different.

Most of the traveling here is by subway or taxi, also tram ways. One seldom sees a real surface car in France. There are of course many autos, but not many in private use at the present time. I have been in the sub-way cars several times, the rest of the movements in the city have been "on foot."

The people here seem to enjoy being where the public can see. Every thing is outside. When you go to a restaurant you can have your meals served on the sidewalk or just inside, but inside is really outside for the front of most of the buildings are removed during business hours.

Oh! yes I want to mention the Y. M. C. A. I am now in one of the general Y. M.'s. and it surely is pretty. A beautiful building and is nicely furnished. Huge easy chairs, worlds of room to sit and read or write. It is just a fine big home. I don't know what the building was formerly, but the decorations are wonderful. We can actually buy ice cream, I suppose the only place in France or England where you can get it at all. We have a Y. M. Canteen in the office building and also in our sleeping quarters. Have not been over Paris much as yet, but have seen some of the main points of interest just in passing.

I get up at about 7:30 A. M. go to work at 9 A. M. and quit about 6 or 6:30 P. M. work part of the forenoon on Sunday's or at least I did today, so you see I have it pretty easy. Can go any place at any time after office hours, come in when get ready. I hope the work will be hard as I want to do something. I do feel now that I can be of real service, and so feel better satisfied than have been before.

I think of home so much, especially when am not working and of course there is a longing, but I think how happy I will be when I do go back home and see all that is dear to me. I want to look forward to that time for then we will have accomplished the things we are fighting for and can enjoy a justly deserved peace.

Yesterday I had one of the most interesting experiences of my military life and one I will long remember. I will tell you all about it sometime. For the information of any one who may doubt the spirit of the boys, who are fighting in France, just say that they have a spirit that will stop at nothing less than complete victory. You or any one would believe it having seen what I have in the short time I have been in France. Whatever doubts I may have had in the quality of our boys generally are all gone now. "Plucky" is no name for them and that is comparatively speaking too. You may see a boy in the states, who don't look like much of a soldier, but by the time he has gotten here I will bet on him in a pinch I don't care what he was to start with.

Am awfully anxious to know whether you have received any of my previous letters. I do hope you have at least learned of my safe arrival in France, or overseas, which you no doubt have. In order that you may know if you get all my letters I will number them starting with this as number one. I wish you would do the same; that way we will be sure and can account for any missing links.

Give my love to all the folks. I thought I would be patient about my mail, but am getting awfully anxious to hear from you.
